Program

AUDIENCE: K-12 SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS, DISTRICT LEADS/COACHES, TEACHERS, EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANTS AND PARENTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND.

In this session, Yvonne Poitras Pratt will share and create a deeper learning and understanding of the Métis people in Alberta. A respected knowledge keeper, Yvonne will provide insight into the identity of the Métis through digital storytelling and share historical perspectives of the rich and vibrant story of the Métis people. Please join in the sharing of foundational knowledge and learning outcomes of the Métis. Resources will be shared with participants.

This learning opportunity is supported by a grant from Alberta Education.

Presenters

Dr. Yvonne Poitras Pratt

is a Métis scholar whose family ancestry traces to the historic Red River Settlement and, more recently, to the Fishing Lake Métis Settlement in northeastern Alberta. Yvonne's passion for teaching Indigenous education classes at the graduate and undergraduate level has been recognized with two teaching awards, and she recently led the collaborative development of a graduate certificate program where students are asked to respond to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's 94 calls to action through capstone service-learning projects. Her publications include topics of Indigenizing practices, reconciliatory pedagogy, service-learning, social justice, and the integration of arts and media in education.
