Program

AUDIENCE: GRADES 10-12 TEACHERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND.

Using Gord Downey's First Nations initiative, Catherine will present this unit including how to build, deliver and assess the unit.

This session will provide support for all levels of school authorities that results in an increased awareness and understanding of First Nations, Métis and Inuit histories, perspectives, and ways of knowing for the purpose of implementing treaty and residential schools education and Truth and Reconciliation Commission calls to action for education, and commitments related to the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

This learning opportunity is supported by a grant from Alberta Education.

Presenters

Catherine Fischer

Catherine Fischer has spent 17 years working in high school classrooms. She began her career at Forest Lawn High School and eventually moved to Beaverbrook High School where she was challenged to create and execute the PASS program whereby at-risk youth were wrapped in a variety of supports to encourage high school graduation. She is currently focused on 30-1 and 20-2 Social Studies.
