Sonja Howatt

has been working for Canadian Rockies Public Schools for twenty years. During this time, Sonja has coordinated and ran an Outreach Program focused on at-risk youth. She also initiated and led the summer school program for several years. Sonja was seconded to the school board for two years and in this role was able to travael to Finland and Norway as part of OECD conferences that addressed how to prepare our youth for this exponentially changing world. Currently, Sonja teaches grade 8 social studies and language arts and is interested in how to support students that struggle with literacy at this level. She also had a key role in developing a new report card using competencies.
