About the Session

Join us for one of these on-line lunch and learn opportunities, designed to engage all adults in the school community with targeted strategies to build capacity in First Nations, Métis and Inuit education.

These lunch time learning opportunities are designed to support educators, leadership, and school communities with TQS & LQS Competency 5: develop and apply foundational knowledge about First Nations, Métis and Inuit for the benefit of all students”.

Conversations will support teachers in identifying learning outcomes that are enhanced by teaching them through Indigenous ways of knowing and exploring best practices. A wealth of resources will be shared.

Come for as much or as little of the time as your lunch break allows. Sessions will be recorded and shared with all registrants.

About the Presenter(s)

Donna Ross is a 31-year educator. She is Cree Métis from Saskatchewan and member of the One Arrow First Nation, Treaty Six territory. Donna began her teaching career as a classroom teacher with Tsuut'ina Nation and continued to support First Nations learners in subsequent positions with Siksika and Stoney Nakoda Nations, and is currently an Indigenous Designer of Learning with the Calgary Regional Consortium. Donna brings passion and a deep knowledge of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit histories, the impact of residential schools, and the embedding of Indigenous ways of knowing into Alberta curriculum and organizational culture. She is also a proud kokum!
