Program

TARGET AUDIENCE: K-9 Teacher and Educational Assistants

Why 'learn from the land'? Why learn through an Indigenous lens? What are the benefits of our students engaging in writing about 'learning from the land'? Join us to seek answers to these questions and gain practical hands-on strategies and approaches you can utilize with your students. Explore ways to encourage deeper thinking and discover supports for both students and teachers to engage in land-based learning.

Presenters

Denise Peterson

Denise Peterson (B.Ed., M.Ed.) has been a teacher, Principal and Educational Consultant for nearly four decades. She was Principal of an Elder-directed partnership school with Siksika Nation and Golden Hills School Division which was awarded the Premier's Award of Excellence in Innovation. She is a tipi holder, the recipient of a Blackfoot name and has received an Excellence in Education Award from the Siksika Nation. In her role as Councillor for the Town of Strathmore, she was an inaugural part of instituting the Siksika/Strathmore Anti-Racism Initiative. In 2023, in recognition of her work in advocacy, she was a recipient of the Queen's Jubilee medal. Denise's Blackfoot name is mamiaitsikimi. She is dedicated to the tenets of Truth and Reconciliation and understands the essential importance of honoring Indigenous Knowledge through stories of lived experience and authentic voice.
