Program

Target Audience: K-6 generalist or specialist Physical Education and Wellness teachers are encouraged to attend.

Do you enjoy opportunities to gather with teachers to talk about great strategies to teach PE & Wellness?

Are you eager to unpack and talk about implementing the K-6 Physical Education & Wellness curriculum?

This is for you! This series will be responsive and designed based on the needs and ideas of the group. Considerations will include designing learning plans to align with the PE & Wellness curriculum, discussing pedagogy in practice, drawing on the experiences and expertise of our community members, and of course, we will have some fun while we are at it!

We will host after-school synchronous online sessions to begin and end our series while offering asynchronous resources and ideas in the 3 weeks in between. The best part of collaborative communities are the discussions and ideas that are shared within, so be sure to come ready to participate.
